

Exhibits & Community Partners

ROBOBugs!
Invasion of the GIANT INSECTS

Sponsored locally by Truly Nolen

Opening Weekend • September 29 & 30, 2007

Guest Speaker
Thomas Dykstra, Ph.D.
University of Florida

The Melting Pot joined us for Insect Crunch 'n Munch. Visitors sampled chocolate covered grasshoppers and crickets.

Scott Nolen, President of Truly Nolen of America (right), and Barry Murray, national spokesperson

AMAZING REPTILES
Real and Robotic

Opening Weekend with African Adventure 3D

January 18 – 22, 2008

- Susan Kelleher, D.V.M. – Reptilian Veterinary Practices presentation.
- Florida Atlantic University
- Florida Public Archaeology Network – “Journey from Africa” Lecture Series

Minerals Rock! Building Blocks of the Universe opened in July 2008 and features 60 different types of minerals, rocks and ammonites. The exhibits in this display were provided by the Broward College Graves Museum Collection - Carol Jacobs Mineral and Ammonite Collection.

Broward College President, David Anderson (right) and Central Campus Provost, Dr. Lois Bolton (far left) joined Kim Cavendish, Museum President, to launch the new exhibit.

Frogs
a chorus of colors

Exhibit Opening • May 23 – 26, 2008

- Sawgrass Herpetological Society
- Exotic Pets Pet Store
- Clyde Peeling’s Reptiland
- Puppets to Go presented the “Frog Prince.”

THE CLIMATE CHANGE SHOW

Opening Weekend • September 20 – 21, 2008

- South Florida Water Management District
- Broward County Waste and Recycling Services

Students from the South Plantation High School Environmental Magnet School displayed their solar powered car and kayak during the Climate Change Show exhibit.